POLICY

Academic Standing is an assignment of a student's academic status. Each student's academic standing is reviewed at the completion of each term. A student's academic standing designation may change at any point during a term due to academic and/or disciplinary reasons. Academic Standing designations include Good Academic Standing, Academic Probation, Academic Suspension, and Administrative Withdrawal.

DEFINITIONS

Good Academic Standing

Good academic standing is having achieved a passing grade in all completed courses and having no other outstanding academic deficiencies.

Academic Probation

Academic Probation is a designation that the student has an un-remediated course failure.

Academic Suspension

Academic Suspension designates the status of a student who is withdrawn from activity in the program's curriculum for academic and/or disciplinary reasons, and is offered the opportunity to subsequently re-enroll.

Administrative Withdrawal

Administrative Withdrawal is the withdrawal of a student from the curriculum for academic and/or disciplinary reasons.
