5. Procedural Steps
5.1. Students will notify the fourth year coordinator via the Rotation Request Form where they intend to rotate. The fourth year coordinator will receive these requests in the BCOM clinicaleducation@bcomnm.org email account.

The fourth year coordinator will:

5.1.1 Review the request and search the program’s website for their rotation requirements;

5.1.2 Initiate contact with the program’s coordinator/representative to inquire about the need for an affiliation agreement (see SOP #: CE.010.00), or implementation letter process (see SOP # CE.011.00);

5.1.3 Begin the preceptor approval process by obtaining the required documents;

5.1.3.a. Approve in CAPRI by selecting “Approved by OCE”

5.1.4 Determine if the program will use VSLO, ClinicianNexus, or Institution’s Application for students to apply.
5.2. VSLO Applications.

5.2.1 Students may apply through VSLO and upload the documents required by the institution;

5.2.2 The registrar and fourth year coordinator will receive an e-mail notification when students have pending items on their application;

   5.2.2.a. The Registrar will upload students’ academic transcripts and Letter of Good Standing

   5.2.2.b. The fourth year coordinator will:

   1. Verify the students’ profile

   2. Upload any other required documents

   5.2.2.c. The fourth year coordinator will review and release the application to the institution.

5.3. Clinician Nexus Applications.

5.3.1. Students may apply through Clinician Nexus and upload the documents required by the institution;

5.3.2. The fourth year coordinator will receive an e-mail notification when students have pending items on their application;

   5.3.2.a. The fourth year coordinator may upload:

   1. Letter of Good Standing (provided by the Registrar)

   2. Certificate of Malpractice Insurance

5.4. Institution’s Application.
