Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund Certification

The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF II) that provides more than $22 billion in emergency funding to students in the form of emergency financial aid grants for expenses related to the disruption the COVID-19 pandemic.

The College will receive a $167,743, which is provided to students for their expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child-care. Each student that applies is eligible for a maximum of $500.

Enrolled D.O. Students can request funds related to their cost of attendance or for emergency costs that have arisen due to the coronavirus such as:

- Tuition
- Food
- Housing
- Course Materials
- Technology
- Healthcare
- Childcare
- Other Expenses (transportation, misc.)

How do I apply?

Please provide a statement/email and supporting documentation (i.e. receipts for technology upgrades, receipts for daycare expenses) regarding how you have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Incomplete requests will not be reviewed. This an emergency grant to help you manage unexpected expenses related to the coronavirus, and it will not impact other financial aid you may be eligible to receive
