

HONOR CODE

Students enrolled in programs at the College are expected to hold themselves and their peers to professional standards of behavior. Upholding the integrity of the academic environment goes beyond honesty and accountability in the performance of coursework; it extends to interpersonal relationships both within and external to the campus community, respect for academic freedom, ethical use of social media, and conduct within the law. The College has adopted a general policy that describes the expectations it places upon its students, faculty and staff in exercising professional conduct. The complete Code of Professional Conduct policy may be found at:

Students found in violation of the College's Code of Professional Conduct or the student developed Honor Codes may be subject to involuntary withdrawal from the College. For a complete discussion of procedures related to Honor Code infractions please visit the College's website at:
