

Karen Vaillant, MD

Dr. Vaillant was born and raised in Thunder Bay, Ontario, Canada.

She graduated from the University of Western Ontario School of Medicine in London, Ontario in 1987. Following that, she graduated from the McMaster Family Medicine Residency Program in Hamilton, Ontario in 1989.

She has been Board Certified in Family Medicine since then.

From 1995 to 2013, Dr. Vaillant was the Program Director of the Eastern New Mexico Family Practice Residency Program in Roswell, New Mexico. This a rural training program and during that time 45 Family Medicine Residents successfully completed the program, many of whom are still practicing in rural areas of the Southwest.

After five years of practice in her Family Medicine/Geriatric Clinic In Roswell, she moved to Las Cruces, NM where she is happy to have settled in nicely.

Dr. Vaillant is currently the Assistant Dean of the Eastern New Mexico Regional Academic Center in Roswell, NM, and the Family Medicine Clerkship Director at the Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine.
