In accordance with Title 38 US Code 3679(e), this educational institution adopts the following additional provisions for any students using U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Post-9/11 GI Bill® (Ch. 33) or Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment (Ch. 31) benefits, while payment to the institution is pending from VA. This educational institution will not:

- Prevent the student's enrollment;
- Assess a late penalty fee to the student;
- Require the student to secure alternative or additional funding;
- Deny the student access to any resources (access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities) available to other students who have satisfied their tuition and fee bills to the institution.

However, to qualify for this provision, such students may be required to:

- Produce the VA Certificate of Eligibility (COE) by the first day of class;
- Provide a written request to be certified;
- Provide additional information needed to properly certify the enrollment as described in other institutional policies

GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government website at <https://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill>.*

Tuition Refund Policy

Any student signing an enrollment agreement or making an initial payment toward tuition and fees shall be entitled to a "cooling off" period of three (3) working days from the date of agreement or payment or from the date that the student first visits the institution, whichever is later. During the "cooling off" period, the agreement can be withdrawn and all payments shall be refunded.

Following the "cooling off" period, but prior to the beginning of instruction, a student may withdraw from enrollment and the College shall be entitled to retain no more than $100 or 5% in tuition and fees, whichever is less, as registration charges.

A student who cancels or withdraws (voluntarily or involuntarily) will receive a pro-rated refund of tuition charged for the terms based on the following schedule:

Date of student withdrawal as a % of the enrollment period for which the student was obligated	Portion of tuition and fees obligated and paid that are eligible to be retained by the institution
On 1st class day	0%
After 1st day; within 10%	10%
After 10%; within 25%	50%
After 25%; within 50%	75%
50% or thereafter	100%

Refer to the Academic Calendar for specific dates.

Mobilization/Deployment Refund Policy

Members of the military who receive orders which transfer them out of the area for a prolonged period or members of the National Guard or Reserves who are called to active duty, when such transfer interferes with class attendance, may request a full refund of tuition at any time during the semester. Documentation of orders for transfer must be provided prior to refund being granted. The College has a proration refund policy for students receiving VA benefits. Students receiving VA benefits must request that the prorated refund policy be used for tuition reimbursement.
