

Stephanie Benson, MD

Stephanie Benson is a full-scope, board certified, family physician and Associate Program Director at the Southern NM Family Medicine Residency Program in Las Cruces, NM. She attended medical school and completed her internship at West Virginia University and completed the remainder of her residency at the Southern NM Family Medicine Residency Program here in Las Cruces. She completed a Faculty Development Fellowship at UNC Chapel Hill and a graduate certificate in Palliative Care at the University of MD in Baltimore. In addition to her role as faculty and Associate Program Director, she is the medical director of the Palliative

Care Team at Memorial Medical Center. She has served on the Board of Directors of the New Mexico Academy of Family Physicians since 2008, is a Past -President, continues to serve as Delegate to the AAFP Congress of Delegates, and was recently appointed Chair of the Commission on Federal and State Policy for the American Academy of Family Physicians.