

Linda Pribble M.A., BCC, OFS

Chaplain Linda Pribble is from Chicago and makes her home in Las Cruces with her husband, Dr. Wayne Pribble. She has a Master's Degree in Religious Studies from Mundelein of Loyola University in Chicago. She is a Board-Certified Chaplain (BCC) with the National Association of Catholic Chaplains since 2004. She has been a Healthcare Chaplain for nearly twenty years, and is a Secular Franciscan, with the "Our Lady of Guadalupe" Fraternity in Las Cruces. She worked for NorthBay Healthcare in Northern California coordinating Bereavement Services, "We Honor Veterans," "Dream of a Lifetime", and the Hospice Volunteer Program. She also worked for Lovelace Medical Center in Albuquerque as an Oncology & Hospice Chaplain.

Currently, she is a member of the Las Cruces Palliative Care Coalition. The aim of the coalition is to encourage and collaborate palliative care services for non-terminal patients. You can learn more about this at <https://lascrucespalliativecare.org> and U-Tube at: "Las Cruces Palliative Care Coalition".

She and her husband are Grandparents to three girls and two boys, in Washington, Boston and Indiana.
